2. The K section of the third inspectorate at 38-39 Gundelfinger Strasse, Berlin-Karlshorst, was subordinate directly to the K main section which was headed by Nedwig (fmu) and closely cooperated with this office. The K main section was responsible for all railroad lines in East Germany while the K section of the third inspectorate was responsible for the railroad system in East Berlin and had to protect and safeguard railroad property. Responsible for the railroad system in Berlin-West was the VP office West with the railroad office on Invaliden Strasse at Berlin-Nordbahnhof. Chief of this office was VP Rat Walter Kluck.

1. [redacted] Comment. The redesignation of the main section of the transportation police into an independent main administration which had previously been announced [redacted] apparently took place in the fall of 1952.

25X1X It is not yet possible to determine whether this main administration is subordinate to the Ministry of Security or Ministry of the Interior. Inspekteur (Chefinspekteur?) Auerwald or Auerswald (fmu) as chief and Inspekteur Goehler (fmu) as PK chief have held their posts for more than a year. The reorganization into transportation police inspectorates and transportation police office took place in the eight regional railroad headquarters and 38 railroad district headquarters on 1 July 1952.
